J. W. ELWAY IS DEAD OF PNEUMONIA

James W. Elway, aged 50 years, died at 9:30 o clock Thursday night at his home in McKees Rocks after a short illness of pneumonia which laid its hold on him, only last Sunday. The deceased was a well known newspaper man in this section, he having been connected for several years with the Monessen News here in the capacity of foreman. He also established the Bellwood Bulletin and was formerly proprietor of the West Newton Times-Sun. At the time of his death he was employed at the McKees Rocks Herald. He was married twice and leaves a daughter, Mrs. Eugene Payne of McKees Rocks, by his first wife, a widow and two sons, Walter and Gerald, and two daughters, Hattie and Laura, by the second marriage.

A Diversity of Opinion

The Methodist people of Monongahela are trying to decide a very ticklish question, that of using the down-stairs portion of the church for a dining room, in which to hold suppers and like entertainments. The Ladies Aid at a recent meeting voted on the matter and the ballot stood 24 to 16 in favor thereof, while it is said a goodly number are apposed to using any part of the church for any such purpose.

SPECIAL FEATURES NEXT WEEK AT THE LUNA

On next Friday and Saturday, March 1st and 2nd, the management of the Luna theatre has secured for its patrons, two of the biggest feature films ever brought to this city. "The Danites," from the pen of McKee Rankin, given in every detail with a cast of over 500 people. On Saturday, the latest European sensation "Foul Play" which is said to rival the great detective story "Zigomar," will be shown complete in three reels. Nothing has been spared in the production of this feature film and it is being brought here at a great expense. Admission to both shows will be the regular price, 5 cents. Come, bring your family and your friends. 22-2t

SUNDAY SERVICES--- MOVING PICTURES

The auditorium at the opera house was well filled last night and the evangelistic services contained much of interest throughout.

The choir was directed by Prof. Davies and a number of spirited selections were rendered prior to the regular opening.

Prayer was offered by Rev. Hughes of the Christian church and the fifty-first Psalm was read as a scripture lesson by Evangelist Porter.

Rev. McCormick delivered an interesting, instructive and helpful talk on "Whiter Than the Snow." He uttered some caustic yet truthful remarks on the subject of dancing, card playing and kindred evils. In fact he handled the subject most fearlessly, and the truths he propounded could not be gainsaid by the most observant critic or egotist on those subjects. Rev. McCormick closed his talk by advocating a purer life, a better life and the embracing of the present opportunity and acceptance of the proffered salvation.

Evangelist Porter talked on "Ye have not gone this way before." He directed his remarks toward the young folks after leaving the parental roof. The right establishment of the home—a good home, a pure home, a lovable home and a Godly home. A home with the family altar. Start home life and business life right, and practice His precepts.

A collection was taken and announcements made. A meeting will be held in the Baptist church this evening, and Sunday the "for men only" meeting as usual at 3 o'clock in the Star theatre and the "for women only" meeting at the same hour in the Christian church.

The closing meeting of the series will be in the opera house at 7:45 at which the final collection will be taken for the evangelists.

Arrangements are being made for a special children's meeting at the same hour, to be held in the Star theatre.

One full reel of 1000 feet of motion picture, "Though your sins be as scarlet they shall be white as snow," will be shown, also 48 stereopticon views on the direct life of Christ, with descriptive lecture. There will be an illustrated song service directed by Rev. Hughes. All children are urged to be present.

Injured Playing Basket Ball

Alexander Eller met with a slight accident while practicing basket ball in the Christian church gymnasium the other evening. In trying to recover the ball, his foot came in contact with the wall with great force and as a result he requires the services of a cane in walking.

Star Theatre

Large crowds greeted the two performances at the Star theatre last night and every indication points to record breaking attendances both this afternoon and evening. "The Three Bears" present a clever singing act followed by Alice Van in an original international dance. Sutton, McIntyre and Sutton present a novelty acrobatic act of more than ordinary merit. The bill closes with a feature film shown on the big daylight curtain. 1t

CITY COUNCIL MEETS. TO ADMIT McMAHAN AND LIKELY DUTCHTOWN TOO

Council held an adjourned session last night, and disposed of some important matters. The streets and roads committee made many recommendations regarding improvements which were adopted. The paving of several streets and many alleys was included in the schedule. Donner will be paved to the East borough line, Rostraver from Reed to the borough line, Fourth from Reed to Motheral, and a portion of Sixth and Twelfth streets and all the down town alleys, and those in the residence section between paved streets. The alleys are to be paved according to a recent act of assembly which provides that the abutting property owners on either side pay half the cost relieving the borough of a one-third as in the case of streets. C. S. Duvall moved for the adoption of the entire schedule giving the ordinance committee authority to draft ordinances covering the several improvements. R. T. Dale of the light and water committee recommended the change of a West Penn pole at the corner of Ninth and Reed. The recommendation adopted. A communication from Alexander Potter, the engineer, on a sewage disposal plan was read. It suggested that Monessen and Donora co-operate in plans for a joint disposal. After brief discussion negative action was taken. Burgess Reamer introduced an ordinance limiting the operation of trancient retail merchants and venders. It was drafted after the state law and was declared by the burgess to be constitutional. It passed first and second reading. An ordinance was passed on first and second reading addmitting to the corporate limits thirty acres of out laying lots. The section is known as the reservoir section of the East Side Land company plan. A joint resolution with McMahan for the annexation to Monessen of that borough was passed finally. A similar resolution has been passed by the McMahan council. The engineer was instructed to investigate the conditions for the admission of Dutchtown and report at the next meeting. The bid of the Hallem construction company for the paving of Morgan avenue extension was accepted.

The recommendation of H. N. Odbert as a member of the health board was approved and John G. Park was retained as a member of that body. The ordinance committee was instructed to draft and ordinance for the placing of a sewer on Braddock avenue. Council adjourned until the regular meeting night, the first Thursday of March.

JOHN PROTZMAN IS INJURED BY A FALL

Early last evening, John Protzman, a well known member of the furniture establishment of G. F. Wright, met with a painful accident while returning from a call on Morgan avenue. Mr. Protzman was making his way caustiously along the steps when his feet suddenly slipped and he was thrown with violent force to the ground, striking his face and right hand. A small bone in the hand was broken by the force of the fall and several slight bruises cover his face and body. He was able to resume his duties this morning.

The Bijou

"The Heart of Man," a clever Vitagraph production showing at the Bijou today is a picture of more than ordinary interest. It contains something that appeals to "the inner person" and is a decided change from the usual variety of pictures offered. Two other first class pictures including "Billy's Stratagem" an extremely comic film that will bring a smile to the face of a "chronic grouch." 1t

WINWOOD ROBBED AT GREENSBURG

Ed Winwood, the well-known butter man of East Schoonmaker avenue had a streak of hard luck while in Greensburg this week serving as a juryman. It seems that Mr. Winwood had procured for himself a comfortable boarding house and thought everything was ship-shape for the week's stay. However he was doomed to disappointment for about the first night his troubles began. He retired and slept soundly and well, and he states that when he awoke in the morning he found that someone had been in his room, gone through his clothing, and procured therefrom $4.75 in money, pipe case, watch and shirt and collar. This left Mr. Winwood in pretty bad shape. Financially embarrassed and shirtless the man was in a delemma and things looked pretty blue for a time. However he got word somehow to friends up about the court house who went to his relief and the rest of the week ran along pleasantly and Ed is reported having enjoyed himself regardless of his misfortunes.

BIG SHOW AT OLYMPIC THEATRE TO-NIGHT

A first class evening's entertainment may be had at the Olympic theatre this week. An excellent bill of four acts is being presented, every one a big hit. Bailey and McCree present an amusing comedy sketch followed by Jean Finnecan, a singer of Irish melodies and who introduces a unique and well executed high pedestal dancing act. Mabel Milton, in song and dance, scored heavy with last night's audiences by her clever work. The vaudeville bill closes with Gates and Gates, in a singing, dancing and talking act that is second to none. Both are good dancers, many new and difficult steps being introduced during the sketch. The moving pictures open and close the show and are very good. The music by the orchestra last evening was a trifle shaky and could be improved on a little.

MONESSEN PLAY WELL BUT LOSE

In a basket ball game last evening in the basement of the Christian church, the Christian Bible Class team went down to a 32-13 defeat at the hands of the Methodist team of the Donora church league. The locals were clearly outclassed by the speedy passing of their opponents, but nevertheless, put up a plucky game. At the end of the first half the score stood 15-3 in favor of Donora. Berkey, Koehl and Volk did good work for the visitors while Martz and Zell played best for the local team. Lineup:

PAGE ATHLETICS TO MEET IN BANQUET

A combined banquet and meeting of the Page athletic association will be held at the New Kilroy hotel on Monday evening, March 4th, at 8:30 o'clock for the purpose of hearing the reports of the officers, reorganization and talking over and determining plans for the coming season.

For the past three seasons the Page team has had an active part in furnishing the town with a first class article of baseball and last year was the only team in the city to play out of town teams and thus place Monessen on the base ball map. The Page park will be entirely remodeled as soon as spring sets in, new stands erected with a much greater seating capacity provided for and a new diamond laid out on or near the site of the former one.

High class vaudeville is the offering this evening at the Olympic theatre. Four big city acts are on the board along with two reels of pictures.

Only daily paper published in Westmoreland county in the upper section of the Monongahela valley.

The political situation in Westmoreland county is getting somewhat muddled. However interesting it may become it is evident that there is but one logical candidate for the Republican nomination in the Twenty-second congressional district. We refer to Hon. E. E. Robbins of Greensburg, who has deserved this honor on behalf of the voters of his party on account of valuable services well rendered. He has all his life been a loyal Republican, advocating and practicing the principles of Abraham Lincoln and other men who have contributed to the nation's greatness. There never was a time when called out to work for the interests of his party that he refused to go and in the campaign of 1912 when the national contest is on he is needed in the harness to help swing Westmoreland county back into the Republican column. Let the Republicans of this district think of nominating no other man for congress than Mr. Robbins.

If "Ted" Roosevelt owes anything to the people of this commonwealth he owes them an answer to whether he is a candidate for president. This indifferent attitude at this critical hour is becoming very monotonous, and people everywhere are demanding a settlement of the question, and if indifference is manifested much longer T. R. may lose some of his staunch supporters.

When the sun shines and other semblances of Spring make their appearance and the good citizen glances at the Sixth street park, it kind of makes him heart sick. It would be so much more creditable to the town if that were converted into a nice, grassy slope with well kept flower beds scattered here and there.

The man who scoffs at the christian work of others has no religion in his soul and he makes every possible excuse to keep any from getting in unobserved by him. He wants to continue to revel in the sins and vices of the world, but the day dawns when everybody casts about for shadows of the past.

This paper not being pliable and flexible, some people don't seem to like it; if it were pliable and flexible to the whims of everybody, knockers included, others wouldn't like it, so it rather wishes to be respected for honest opinions fearlessly expressed.

The Belle Vernon and Monessen civic bodies have been working harmoniously together for the good of the community, and they have accomplished much. Let the good work and the kindly feeling go on unmolested.

The fellow who doesn't "stop, look and listen" before he drives over a grade crossing is just as bad as the fellow who rocks the boat or "didn't know it was loaded."

Monessen has over two hundred live wires, but she needs more. Now is the time to join. Send all requests to the secretary of the Board of Trade.

There is no danger of an editor choking on a piece of beefsteak. The average editor can't get a full bite at a time on account of the costivity of the stuff.

What is a town that has no improved highways leading to it? Just like the deserts of old, nobody wants to go there.

Some of our youths are still sowing their wild oats. Oh, what a harvest they will have to gather some day.

The big, bunglesome, brainless hat has gone out, and once again woman can look like herself.

May Go to Washington

Charleroi may not get into the O. and P. League after all, as it is said the man who is to manage the team believes that Washington would make the better town. He is now looking over the ground there, with a view to establishing the club at the county seat.

MONESSEN INFESTED BY THE IDLE GENTRY

For some reason or other Monessen has been infested with more than her share of the "Knights of the Road' during the last month and the same conditions seems to prevail so far during the present month. Night Desk Seargent Jenkins, at the jail decided to keep tab on how many of the "homeless" folks he sheltered during the month of February and the records so far show that over 100 vagrants have been housed for the night, an average of almost 5 every evening. For the last three evenings a peep into the back room of the lockup would remind one more of a hotel corridor at a resort by the sea in the middle of the summer than a jail, so densely populated were the benches and floors with sleeping forms.

Quite a few bums and even a few boys from this vicinity are said to hold out in the evening in the shanties that are used for the storage of building material by the contractors for the street to the river. They are in the habit of securing "victuals" from almost any source that is open and many a house wife's larder has been depleted by a visit from these hungry travelers and young marauders.

The police force is keeping close watch on the operations of these alleged gangs that are prone to pry around on back streets late at night, and in addition to several arrests that have already been made, a general clean sweep may be expected now at almost any time.

DRIVEN INTO THE WILDERNESS. Mark i, 9-11; Matthew iv, 1-11—Feb. 25. "For in that He Himself hath suffered, being tempted, He is able to succor them that are tempted."—Hebrews ii, 18.

OUR STUDY for today is a most interesting one. It points to the time when Jesus reached the age of thirty and was permitted to offer Himself without spot to God as the world's Sin-offering.

There the Redeemer became the antitypical Passover Lamb, the antitypical bullock of the Atonement Day Sin-offering. There He gave up His life to the doing of the Father's will; there He as the Man Jesus died; there He as the antitypical bullock was slain; there He was begotten of the Holy Spirit and became the antitypical Priest—the Sacrificer. Through the following three and a half years of His ministry He carried out this consecration and completed it at Calvary, crying, "It is finished!"

"Baptized of John in Jordan."

When Jesus received the begetting of the Holy Spirit at His baptism it was the begetting to the divine nature, and with it came great enlightenment to His mind, as represented in the words, "And the heavens were opened unto Him." Forthwith He could see clearly into the Divine purposes respecting Himself in a manner not possible to Him prior to His consecration.

At once the Master realized the full import of the Day of Atonement sacrifices, of the Passover lamb slain, of the prophecies that spoke of Himself as being led as a lamb to the slaughter, and of His being the antitype of the brazen serpent, lifted on high for the healing of Adam's sin-bitten race.

Led of the Spirit—Into Temptation.

As these thoughts began to rush into the Savior's mind, He was first of all impressed of the spirit (His own spirit) to go apart for awhile and to study out the full import of the Law and the Prophets and His own obligations according to the Covenant He had just made. For forty days and nights His intense earnestness made Him oblivious to almost everything else. Apparently He neither ate nor slept until the forty days were ended; and He "afterward hungered."

Then it was that the Adversary appeared as a tempter—at the moment of His physical weakness as the result of fasting—when His soul was overwhelmed with the realization of the importance of the great contract He had made and of what it would cost Him to fulfil its terms. It was the severest test imaginable. Would the Redeemer prove loyal to God—to the Divine Program—to His covenant of consecration unto death? Or would He feel that the Father had poured too bitter a cup for Him—that God had made the tests of loyalty and obedience too severe—that it was neither just nor loving to allow Him to enter into such a contract?

How glad we are to note the loyalty which triumphed over every temptation! With the angels we acclaim, "Worthy is the Lamb who was slain!" To Him be glory, honor, dominion and might everlasting!

Tempted as We Are.

The Savior was not tempted with the habits of a drunkard nor the weaknesses of a debauchee or a libertine, neither are those the temptations which come to us—His footstep followers. We are to remember that the Scriptures clearly differentiate between us and the world: "Ye are not of the world even as I am not of the world." "Tempted like as we are," therefore signifies that the temptations or trials which Jehovah permits to come upon His consecrated people are of the same kind that He permitted to come upon our Redeemer.

"All these things will I give thee."

It is important, therefore, that we notice the character of our tests. God is not testing us to see whether or not our flesh is perfect, for He knew all along that amongst men there is none righteous, no, not one. The Father's tests for those whom He receives as sons are tests of loyalty to Him, loyalty to the principles of righteousness, to the Truth, to the Divine methods—a refusal to take our own way or to seek our own glory at the expense of Truth or of the Divine method.

Our Lord was indignant that it should be thought for a moment that, having left the heavenly glory to do the Father's will, He should now prove traitor to His covenant, and for fear of the cross and the shame and the death He should enter into a confederacy with the great Arch-enemy of righteousness—Satan. He answered, "Get thee hence, Satan, for it is written: 'Thou shalt worship the Lord, thy God, and Him only shalt thou serve.' I will not serve you nor co-operate with you in any sense of the word." "Then the Devil leaveth Him." We are to resist the Adversary courageously that he may leave us permanently, seeing no hope of winning us.

Miss Eloise McMahan entertained the "Hummers" at her home in McMahan last evening. An enjoyable evening was spent by those present, music and games furnishing the diversions. A delightful lunch was served at a late hour. Those present were the Misses Louise Frazier, Olive Anderson, Esther Allison, Catherine Brightwell, Eoline Mitchell, Virginia Smith, Emma Lloyd and Beatrice McMahon.

Miss Elizabeth Cornwall and Mr. W. L. Arthington were married Monday in Pittsburgh. Miss Cornwall formerly resided in Monessen and held a position as head milliner at the store of J. W. Berryman and Son, but for some time she has been located in the city. Mr. Arthington is located at Conneaut and the couple will take up their residence in a handsome summer home at that place owned by the groom.

MONESSEN JUNIOR O.U.A.M. ENTERTAIN

Monessen Council No. 158 Jr. O. U. A. M., were hosts Thursday evening to the Fayette City degree team and several prominent officers of the Order at an initiation held in Kelly's hall and a banquet later in the parlors of the Luna restaurant. A class of five candidates was put "throught the mill" in great style by the degree team from the up river town after which many excellent speeches were made by the visiting officers, and members of the local council.

A sumptuous barquet had been provided in the parlors of the Luna restaurant and the dinner was one of the big hits of the evening. Among the prominent members present were: State Councillor, T. J. Ashford; Past State Councillors Benjamin, Ross and Worthman and District Deputies Farquhar, Hank and Dewitt, the latter being the deputy of this district.

The Jr. O. U. A. M. is one of the town's foremost fraternal orders and ever since the installation of the local council has taken an active part in the welfare of the town and its advancement, in addition to holding a high position among the fraternal organizations of its kind in the country.

No Funds For Cleaning Streets

Monongahela's street commissioner is strictly up against it, so to speak. He is better off than some men, as he has a job, but when asked the other day about cleaning the streets he said he would like to, and knew they needed it badly, but the committee has no money and street cleaning was out of the question. It's alright to have a job, but not very encouraging if there is a lack of the "long green" back of it in insufficient quantities to promote "healthy" circulation.

YOUR GRAY HAIRS QUICKLY VANISH

A Harmless Remedy, Made from Garden Sage, Restores Color to Gray Hair.

A feeling of sadness accompanies the discovery of the first gray hairs, which, unfortunately, are looked upon as heralds of advancing age. Gray hairs, however, are not always an indication of advancing age, for many people have gray hairs quite early in life. Of course, it is unnatural, and indicates that there is something wrong with the individual, and that Nature needs assistance in correcting the trouble. The same is true of hair that is constantly falling out and becoming thinner every day. If everything is right with Nature, the hair, even in comparatively elderly people, should be long, thick and glossy, without even a streak of gray.

The ideal assistant to Nature in restoring and preserving the hair is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a clean and wholesome dressing for daily use. It not only removes dandruff, but strengthens weak, thin and falling hairs and promotes its growth. A few applications will restore faded or gray hair to its natural color.

Get a bottle to-day, and let it do for you what it has done for thousands of others.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

A Water Doctor Cured Her

"For years I had suffered from a weak back and pain in my kidneys. At times I was laid up in bed and not able to bend my back. The doctors treated me for inward trouble but I kept getting weaker. Then dropsy set in and the urine became scanty and dark colored. My appetite failed, breath became short and eyes weak. I was told I had Bright's Disease and could not get well. Under Dr. Shafer's treatment I was soon able to get out of bed and in a short time was cured. This was five years ago and I am still well." MRS. MARY HAUSMAN, 715 Idlewood Ave., Carnegie, Pa.
